Esports World Cup 2026: Dedicated Hospitality Packages for Professionals

at 3 July 2026

From July 6 to August 23, 2026, Paris will host the Esports World Cup. Alongside the competitions, a dedicated hospitality offering will be available through the Esports Embassy, designed specifically for businesses and professionals.

Description

Hosted at Paris Expo Porte de Versailles, the Esports World Cup 2026 will bring together the world's top players, teams and gaming communities for seven weeks of international competitions.

Alongside the tournament, the Esports Embassy offers hospitality packages tailored to businesses, including access to a premium lounge, catering services and networking opportunities at the heart of the event.

Located within the competition venue, the space provides privileged views of the arenas and key tournaments. The hospitality packages also offer an opportunity to host clients, partners and colleagues in a dedicated setting while enjoying the event's highlights.
By hosting the Esports World Cup 2026, Paris further strengthens its position as a destination for major international events and reinforces its growing role in the gaming and esports industries.
