Description

Located opposite the Jardin des Tuileries in Paris, Angelina Rivoli is introducing a new Early Dinner offer tailored to groups. This new format is designed to complement evening programmes, particularly before shows, events or other nightlife activities.

A historic Parisian institution, Angelina is widely known for its iconic pastries, including the famous Mont-Blanc, while also offering a refined savoury menu served in an elegant and authentic setting.

The Early Dinner menu, priced at €45 per person, includes a three-course meal (starter, main course and dessert) with multiple options, as well as one bottle of wine for every three guests. The menu features classic French cuisine with a contemporary touch, including dishes such as roasted poultry, sea bass fillet and rigatoni with burrata.

Developed specifically for group clients, this offering provides a practical and structured solution that fits into tight schedules while maintaining a high level of quality. It allows tourism operators and event planners to integrate a premium dining experience into their Paris itineraries while benefiting from a renowned and well-located venue.
